Kaichorus

Sons of Gallipoli

We sang-God of Nations at thy feet-
As we stood on the sacred shore
With a heartfelt pride
Somewhere deep inside
For the sons of Gallipoli

We sang-E Ihowa Atua-
From the place they call ANZAC Cove
We gazed out to sea
Where our home would be
For the sons of Gallipoli

How still you lie
And how still you die
on the hillsides

We sang- hear our voices we entreat-
As the wind blew from off the sea
With a tearful sigh and the question why
For the sons of Gallipoli
We sang-God defend our free land-
And for all whose lives are torn
With one voice implore
No more talk of war
For the sons of Gallipoli

1117- Commemorative Address

Guest Speaker –NZ Army Officer

1122 - Heart of Our Town –

Local story – Winston Gray

1125 - Readings

KHS - Deputy Head boy (Noah Bentley) - Words of Mustafa Kemal Ataturk (Founder of Republic of Turkey).

"Thoes heroes that shed their blood and lost their lives....you are now lying in the soul of a friendly country.

Therefore, rest in peace, there is no difference between the Johnnies and the Mehmets to us where they lie side by side here in this country of ours...You, the mothers, who sent their sons from far away countries, wipe away your tears; your sons are now lying in our bosom and are in peace, after having lost their lives on this land they have become our sons as well"

KHS - Head Girl (Emma Rae) – Flanders Fields (John McRae 1915).

*In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders Fields*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you, from failing hands, we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders Field*
