As the circumstances relating to each individual property and the behavioural characteristics of the different breeds of dogs varies, the final conditions as will be applied to the Property Licence will be determined following an on-site inspection by a Regulatory Enforcement Officer.

The holding of a property Licence does not in any way exempt the dog or owner from the requirements for dog ownership as laid down under the Dog Control Act 1996 and Council's Dog Control bylaws. Issues of barking, smell or other nuisance relating to the dogs will be handled in the normal manner by Regulatory Services and could result in a property licence being revoked at any time.
